

Southern Spain Wine Tour | The Sherry & Andalusian Wine Region

Seville + Córdoba + Málaga + Granada + Ronda

Day One | Seville - An Amazing and Historical Arrival

Our day begins with a warm welcome at Seville Airport, where you're greeted and taken straight to the heart of the city. We will enjoy a relaxed lunch at a charming local restaurant, savoring Andalusian specialties. In the afternoon, explore the majestic Seville Cathedral—one of the largest and most impressive Gothic structures in the world—climbing the Giralda Tower for breathtaking views. Afterwards, stop by a traditional sherry tavern for a tasting experience, sampling local varieties in an authentic setting. We will check in at the hotel and have some well-deserved rest, then head out in the evening to enjoy a leisurely dinner, soaking in the lively ambiance of Seville's vibrant streets.

Day Two | From Royal Palaces to Coastal Flavors: A Day from Seville to Cádiz

The day begins with a guided visit to the stunning Real Alcázar of Seville, a masterpiece of Mudéjar architecture and a living palace steeped in centuries of history. From there, dive into Andalusian culinary culture with a hands-on paella cooking class, where you'll prepare and enjoy Spain's most iconic dish. In the afternoon, we head south to Jerez de la Frontera for an authentic Sherry tasting at one of the region's historic bodegas. The journey continues to the coastal city of Cádiz, where we'll take a brief walking tour through its charming old town. As the sun sets, enjoy a memorable seafood dinner by the sea—ending the day with the sound

Day Three | Seville to Córdoba: A Day of Culture, Wine, and Discovery

The day begins in Seville with a visit to the charming Santa María la Blanca Church, a hidden gem blending Islamic, Gothic, and Baroque influences. Nearby, admire the exterior of the Flamenco Theater, a symbol of Andalusia's passionate artistic heritage. From there, we journey into the Montilla-Moriles wine region, where a renowned winemaker welcomes us for an exclusive wine tasting paired with a traditional Andalusian lunch. In the afternoon, we continue to Córdoba, arriving in time for a relaxed hotel check-in. The evening is yours to explore the historic city at your own pace, unwind, or enjoy a quiet dinner in one of its atmospheric plazas.

Day Four | A Day of Heritage and Indulgence in Córdoba

Begin your day in Córdoba with a guided visit to the breathtaking Mosque-Cathedral and its historic surroundings, where layers of Roman, Islamic, and Christian history come to life. After exploring the old Jewish Quarter and charming nearby streets, we drive into the Montilla-Moriles wine region for a special visit to one of its most prestigious wineries. Enjoy a leisurely lunch paired with a curated tasting of their finest wines in a beautiful vineyard setting. In the late afternoon, return to Córdoba for a rejuvenating Hammam experience—soaking in warm, aromatic baths that echo the city's Moorish past. The day concludes with a delightful dinner, celebrating the flavors and spirit of Andalusia.

Day Five | From Córdoba to Málaga: A Journey Through History and Flavor

The day begins in Córdoba with visits to the Caliphate Baths and the impressive Roman Temple, uncovering the city's rich Roman and Islamic roots. From there, we head south toward Málaga, stopping en route at a distinguished winery for a relaxed lunch and a guided wine tasting in a scenic setting. In the afternoon, we arrive in Málaga and enjoy a short city tour, which includes highlights such as the majestic Cathedral and the historic Alcazaba fortress. After hotel check-in, the evening is yours to explore the vibrant coastal city at your own pace.

Day Six | Romance and Wine in Ronda: A Day Trip from Málaga

Departing from Málaga, we journey into the scenic Andalusian hills to reach the stunning town of Ronda. The day begins with visits to two of its most iconic landmarks: the dramatic Ronda Bridge (Puente Nuevo), spanning the deep El Tajo gorge, and Spain's oldest bullfighting ring, steeped in tradition and history. Afterwards, we head to a local winery for a delicious lunch paired with regional wines, set against a backdrop of rolling vineyards. The afternoon continues with a leisurely walk through Ronda's charming streets, followed by a second wine tasting at another boutique winemaker. We then return to Málaga, where a lovely dinner awaits, bringing this unforgettable day to a flavorful close.

Day Seven | A Day of Majesty and Magic in Granada

We depart early for Granada, where the day begins with a guided visit to the monumental Alhambra complex, including the elegant Carlos V Palace and the exquisite Nasrid Palaces—masterpieces of Islamic architecture and artistry. After soaking in centuries of history, enjoy a relaxing lunch in a local restaurant. In the afternoon, wander the cobbled streets of the Albaicín or Realejo neighborhoods, full of Moorish charm and hidden corners. Depending on your preference, visit the traditional Arabian baths for a moment of calm, or experience the passion of an authentic flamenco show. As the day winds down, we'll gather for a scenic picnic at a viewpoint overlooking the Alhambra, just in time to watch the sunset paint the city in golden hues. The evening is yours to enjoy at leisure.

Day Eight | Málaga do Seville Airport Drive & Drop-off

Morocco Tour - 3 days

DAY One | Tangiers - An International hub full of Magic

Arrival in Tangier. Located at the crossroads of Europe and Africa, where the Mediterranean Sea meets the Atlantic Ocean, Tangier has long been a meeting point of cultures, trade, and ideas. We will enjoy a traditional Moroccan meal at one of the local restaurants. Afterwards, we will head to the Kasbah (old town), to explore its narrow winding streets, and take in panoramic views of the city and the Mediterranean Sea from the walls. It's a great spot for photos and discovering Tangier's rich history. We will check in to our hotel in the late afternoon, allowing you to unwind after a day of travel. If you wish to, you can have a quick dip in the hotel pool or rest. Dinner will be served at a local restaurant specializing in traditional Moroccan cuisine.

DAY Two | Asilah + Chefchouen + Mint Tea Experience

We will start the day by driving to Asilah, a charming coastal town known for its whitewashed buildings and murals and its fortress (also called the Medina Walls), where you can enjoy panoramic views of the Atlantic and explore the quiet, artistic town center. We'll have lunch at a local restaurant, a place renowned for its stunning sea view and relaxed atmosphere. We will then head to Chefchouen to marvel at its colors, though a stroll in the city's narrow, winding streets, lined with blue-painted buildings, to capture the beauty of Chefchaouen's vibrancy with a stunning mountain backdrop. After soaking in the charm of Chefchaouen, we will head back towards Tangier. Later in the afternoon, we'll have a quintessential Moroccan experience: to prepare and sip on brewed mint tea paired with traditional pastries such as baklava or chebakia. After tea & pastries it's time for cocktails & dinner.

DAY Three | Tangiers + Ceuta + Seville

Day to leave Morocco and head towards Spain. This will not happen before we have a Hamann Experience in Tangiers. After lunch, we will head towards the city of Ceuta (a Spanish enclave on the Moroccan Coast that the Portuguese previously conquered). We will stroll this walled town to wonder its thickness as well as its span of architectural influences (moorish, portuguese and spanish). We will then prepare to cross the Mediterranean to reach the town of Algeciras which can be briefly visited before we head to our final destination, Seville, to prepare ourselves to all other days ahead, on our Sherry & Andalusian Wine Tour.
